

Date: May 16th at 10:00 a.m.

Scope: This is a tour of an active construction site. We will be touring during off-peak hours to minimize disruption and risk to personnel. Carol Finke is a Kellogg alumni working at Ryan Sports Development and she will be coordinating with the construction teams and leading the tour.

Requirement: The required attire for all participants who are entering the construction site is long pants and boots with rubber soles (no tennis / gym shoes, no heels). Ryan Sports Development will provide PPE gear (hard hat, vest, and protective eye wear).
